

Anne

and the cupcake

Anne, our meeting room attendant, was sharing the elevator with guests one day when she struck up a conversation with an almost six-year-old girl. "It's my birthday tomorrow," beamed the girl. "Well, happy birthday," chimed Anne. A pleasant, if unexceptional, exchange. It didn't end there, however. Knowing that the family was booked into the breakfast buffet the next day, Anne developed a plan.

She bought a cupcake, a card, a candle, and a camera. The next morning, Anne and other staff members lit the candle, placed it in the cupcake, sang happy birthday, and took photos of the surprised and delighted six-year-old, creating a birthday moment her family will never forget. It seems that when you stay at the Victoria Park Suites hotel, you're never too young to be a VIP.
