

Ottawa's Albert at Bay Suite Hotel & Best Western Victoria Park Suites help ease pain at the pump

Make your travel budget go further with fuel friendly hotel packages

Ottawa, Ontario, June 29, 2007 - Albert at Bay Suite Hotel & Best Western Victoria Park Suites recognize the pain of rising gas prices by assisting travelers this summer with a "Suite Summer Deal".

Making budget friendly travel decisions this summer is continuing to affect anyone who decides to vacation by car. Despite the high prices at the gas pump, packages that include a solution to soaring fuel costs, will be welcomed by tourists.

"There is no relief in sight, the price of gas is going nowhere but up. We want to take the heat off our guests' travel budget this summer and offer something of real value. What better way than to help ease the pain at the pump than with a $40 Petro-Canada Gift Card?" says Roger MacKinnon, Director of Sales & Marketing. "We've gone one step farther by including an insulated travel cooler bag full of nut free goodies, drinks, valuable coupons, maps and free hotel parking", adds MacKinnon.

Ottawa is a popular summer destination this year, hosting major events such as FIFA U-20 running thru mid July with Best Western Victoria Park Suites being the closest hotel to that event. The highly anticipated Renoir Exhibit is on now through September 8. Travelers will can also take in a wide range of events including Ottawa Bluesfest and free outdoor concerts by the National Arts Centre Orchestra, near the War Museum (July 19-22). These activities take place at Lebreton Flats, in close proximity to the Albert at Bay Suite Hotel. The majority of tourists who will partake in these activities will travel by car, which for some, may be a struggle with high fuel costs.

The Best Western Victoria Park Suites is situated minutes from the Rideau Canal, an internationally recognized site and one of the very few canals in the world built for military purposes. Visitors from all over the world visit Eastern Ontario to admire this work of creative genius. The Rideau Canal has been designated by UNESCO as a World Heritage Site. The World Heritage Committee announced its decision June 28.
